

Goals

Current Obsession:

1. Become Debt-Free
2. Build muscle and discipline
3. Becoming the best version of myself
4. Do it for my future wife and kids, my brothers, my bois.
5. Outgrow the version of myself from 2016-2021

Mission:

My mission is to become an example for my little brother. I want to be able to become the main character of my own story and know how to prioritize myself on my path. Only then could I help anyone else. I want to be humble and respectable.

Unconditional love, support, and encouragement. Presence and gratitude. Stop my family's generational trauma and setup my kids to have the best life
